EDICATION

To our teachers, through the years, the ones who led us, the ones who guided us, and the ones who put us on the road of self reliance, we dedicate this the first edition of the FLEDGLING.

With this dedication go our sincere best wishes for God-speed and may they continue to mold characters and minds in this and other schools.

MEMORIES

In preparing the first annual for Ridgecrest school, we thought that it might be interesting to include some of the parents of our present day students. As Ridgecrest moves into the second generation we look forward to a happy and progressive school.
